At Uniting Mental Health and Wellbeing, you'll be part of one of Australia's largest and most trusted mental health providers. For more than 46 years, we've supported children, young people, adults, families and carers through trauma-informed, strengths-based care.

Real impact starts with you

You'll work to help people:

- Build resilience
- Foster recovery
- Strengthen meaningful connections
- Live independently and with dignity.

Support people when they need you most

You'll walk alongside:

- Young people at risk of psychosis
- Adults with complex psychosocial needs
- Families supporting a loved one
- Older people navigating major life transitions
- Young people experiencing bullying, identity questions or emotional distress.

Work across diverse communities

We deliver more than 30 mental health programs across NSW and the ACT, including headspace, early psychosis services, psychosocial support, and community mental health programs. Visit uniting.org/mentalhealth for more.

Grow with a team that cares

You'll be part of a supportive, dedicated workforce committed to innovation, inclusion and creating lasting community impact.

About Uniting

Uniting NSW.ACT contributes to the work of the Uniting Church in NSW and the ACT, through community services, spiritual care, social impact and advocacy.

We provide services for people through all ages and stages of life, and drive solutions to systemic issues so people experiencing disadvantage can live their best lives.

Our purpose is to inspire people, enliven communities and confront injustice.

We value diversity and always welcome everyone exactly as they are.
