Uniting

You’re in the right place.

Choosing an aged care home is a big decision for you and your family, so we’re here to make things a little less daunting. Part of what makes our home special is that we think of ourselves as an extended family. We work to create an environment that’s loving, caring and supportive, so you can settle in easier – and feel at home faster.

Plus, when you live with us, you’ll have access to a wide variety of services to help you live a fulfilling life.

Aged care that feels like home

We’re here to support you to live a wonderful life. Which means giving you the choice to help shape your day – just as you would at home. Being such a tight-knit community also allows us to take the time to develop a close relationship with you to understand and celebrate what makes you unique. It’s this flexible approach to respect and honour your wishes, without compromising on your quality 24-hour care, that gives you the space you need to live life on your terms. It’s our way of making you feel right at home.

You won't find 'one size fits all' here

When it comes to your care, we embrace what makes you uniquely you – your likes, your habits, your culture and your hobbies – and welcome you exactly as you are.

By taking the time to develop a close relationship with you, we give you the power to shape your own life and create your 'normal' – so you feel safe, comfortable and at home.

We honour your desire to express who you are, and make your own decisions about the support you receive and how you contribute to your community. It's an approach we call Inspiring Life.

Live your best life

Our leisure and wellness programs are designed around you. We take the time to understand your interests and preferences, so we can develop a program that promotes your health and wellbeing. Your activities may be planned or spontaneous, solo or with a group, or even led by you if that's your wish. It's another way we support you to live a meaningful and happy life.

Your home, your community

Your family and friends are welcome day or night, just as they would be in your current home. We're close to public transport, and there's plenty of street parking nearby. Our communal areas are furnished with comfortable chairs and a large widescreen TV – and there's even a pool table for a little extra fun. And our courtyard is spacious and shaded, with plenty of seating for catching up.

Caring for your mind, body and spirit

You'll have access to regular visits from our local health practitioners, including physiotherapists, dietitians, podiatrists and GPs. If you're seeking a shoulder to lean on, comfort in grief, or the chance to explore your spiritual side, our pastoral care and church services are here to help – and you don't have to identify as a person of faith to benefit. We welcome the cultural contribution your personal beliefs and heritage bring to our home.
