You're in the right place.

Choosing an aged care home is a big decision for you and your family, so we're here to make things a little less daunting. Part of what makes our home special is that we think of ourselves as an extended family. We work to create an environment that's loving, caring and supportive, so you can settle in easier – and feel at home faster.

Plus, when you live with us, you'll have access to a wide variety of services to help you live a fulfilling life.

Aged care that feels like home

Life at Uniting Mirinjani is based on our groundbreaking 'household living' approach, which sees you live within a tight-knit household with a small group of residents. You'll share an inviting living, dining and kitchen area, just like you would in any family home. Living as part of a more exclusive household also gives you the freedom to decide the what, when and how of your daily life – from the activities you take part in, to the meals you enjoy, and even when you wake and retire.

You won't find 'one size fits all' here

When it comes to your care, we embrace what makes you uniquely you – your likes, your habits, your culture and your hobbies – and welcome you exactly as you are.

By taking the time to develop a close relationship with you, we give you the power to shape your own life and create your 'normal' – so you feel safe, comfortable and at home.

We honour your desire to express who you are, and make your own decisions about the support you receive and how you contribute to your community. It's an approach we call Inspiring Life.

Live your best life

Our leisure and wellness programs are designed around you. We take the time to understand your interests and preferences, so we can develop a program that promotes your health and wellbeing. Your activities may be planned or spontaneous, solo or with a group, or even led by you if that's your wish. It's another way we support you to live a meaningful and happy life.

Your home, your community

Your family and friends are more than welcome to drop in and see you, day or night, just like at home. Our convenient on-site parking and excellent transport links make visiting much easier, as does our private room for you to use for private get-togethers. You'll find plenty of seating in our lovingly kept courtyard and our BBQ area. And your littlest visitors can enjoy some time on our children's play equipment.

Caring for your mind, body and spirit

You'll have access to regular visits from our local health practitioners, including physiotherapists, dietitians, podiatrists and GPs. If you're seeking a shoulder to lean on, comfort in grief, or the chance to explore your spiritual side, our pastoral care and church services are here to help – and you don't have to identify as a person of faith to benefit. We welcome the cultural contribution your personal beliefs and heritage bring to our home.
